

ANNOUNCEMENTS

October 18-19, 2025

1. Next weekend is 4th Sunday, so we'll have Multilingual Masses.
2. All Souls Day Remembrance envelopes are available at the back of the pews. Recommended offering is $10 for 2 names. Drop the envelopes with names and suggested offering in the basket by the Altar by next week, Sunday, October 26. The names given will be read the following Sunday, Nov 2 after the 8am Mass.
3. Hallow's Eve falls on Friday, October 31 this year but we invite the children to wear their religious-related costumes for the Sunday, November 2, 10am Mass. Those wearing their favorite saint or religious costume may process upon entrance. There may be even prizes or treats!
4. Kind reminders for soul cleansing opportunities during the Sacrament of Reconciliation. St. Callistus has Reconciliation on Saturdays 4:30pm-5:15pm and 1/2 hour before Sunday Masses. Please inform the Ushers that you wish to make confession, if priest is not at the confessional for Sundays.
5. There has been some unusual activity after-hours at the church. We request parishioners to help identify perpetrators if you witness loitering, dumping and other non-religious activity occurring in our Parish. Do NOT, I repeat Do NOT engage, but please discretely take photos, if possible, so it may help identify them and bring them to justice, if needed. Please notify Fr. Dante or select persons immediately when witnessing these unusual, non-religious activities at our St. Callistus grounds or even inside the church. Thank you for your help in keeping our St. Callistus Church safe, clean and protected.
6. A big THANK YOU to Carmen Urrutia - our Altar Floral Sponsors. We still welcome sponsors for other weekends. The forms are at the back of the pews or may be downloaded at saintcallistus.org home page.

Thank you to the Choir, Lectors, Eucharistic Minister, Mass Coordinator, Altar Servers, Ushers and Greeters and the Loft Team. And thank you all for your attendance.

[Please stand for our St. Callistus Parish Prayer]
